Mattapoisett Election

HUNTOON ELECTED SELECTMAN

One thousand two hundred twenty-one voters, representing about 33% of the Mattapoisett electorate, turned out for the local election and elected James Huntoon Selectman by a 6 vote margin. Blanche B. Perry trailing Huntoon 396 votes to 402 has taken out papers to request a recount. John Bowman totaled 335 votes and George Correa 80 in the race.

William Wood won re-election to the 3-year Old Rochester Regional School Committee seat with 437 votes defeating Richard A. Gamache, 326; Vincent J. Worden, 234; and Nathaniel J. Sawyer, 167.

Wesley N. Bowman won re-election as Tree Warden by 6 to 1 with 891 votes. Darrell C. Maccarone and Oliver R. Smith each received 167 and 139 votes respectively.

Paul E. Lambalot defeated Jack W. Dean 631 to 385 to win a seat on the Mattapoisett Housing Authority.

Leading vote getter in the election was Water Commissioner Winfield F. Jenney with 1038 votes running unopposed for re-election. Other unopposed candidates were: Town Clerk, Lois K. Bassett, 948; Assessor, Walter B. Apperson, 995; Mattapoisett School Committee, Dorothea A. Pierce, 938; Library Trustee, Paul B. Myers, 1005; Moderator, Richard W. Blasdale, 1033; Board of Health, Louis Corey, Jr., 1005; Highway Surveyor, Manuel R. Nunes, Jr., 1029; Planning Board, Lawrence J. O'Pezio, 900; Housing Authority, Bernard F. Talty, 927; Housing Authority (to fill vacancy), Janice E. Robbins, 888; Herring Inspector, Antone J. Nunes, 1020.

Working? Yes, it is!

Editorial, DCJ

Perhaps one of the reasons for the apparent lack of enthusiasm in the recent Mattapoisett election, as shown by a 36% turnout, was the fact that no one of the candidates for Selectmen evidenced a strong support for Proposition 2 1/2. It apparently is the consensus among all of the candidates that the law is not working the way voters intended. Anyone who has directly observed the process of government since the implementation of Proposition 2 1/2 knows this to be a misconception. Every decision involving money since this law was overwhelmingly passed has had to be measured against this line. That's exactly what the law is - the voters intended and did draw a line. In effect, they said to their elected officials, we, the homeowners, will support government handsomely to the limit of 2 1/2% of the total value of our property per year and no more. We do not intend that government should go on creating an inflation that destroys an individual's ability to own a home. That is what the voter intended and that is what the law has done. As to the implementation of the law, there is much to be learned and much more to be done. Fifty years of a free spending political philosophy that has been sold to the American voter cannot be corrected in 2 or 3 months. For 50 years the American voter has been conned into believing that government can manage money better than the individual against all evidence to the contrary.

If there is a weakness in Proposition 2 1/2 it is the fact that it did not go far enough. It should have limited the State government's ability in the area of taxaction. So many of local government difficulties originate from the mandates from the State level. Even now, the State has the power to push its obligations onto the County government which assesses the local government with no representation. Even now, in instance after instance in both government and the school system State mandated programs exist and will continue to demand funding from the local government.

Proposition 2 1/2 has forced an attitude of economy on every phase of local government. It will take a while before it becomes apparent that more than the paring of all of the various budgets will have to be accomplished to live within the line of 2 1/2. Government has always grown with the expectation that everything is possible. Politically it is painful to say no. No wins no votes.

Now, suddenly political management has to learn to say no, not only that but sometime in the near future must face the fact that not everything is possible.

Therefore, any statement that Proposition 2 1/2 is not working as the voters intended is definitely premature. It will not reach its potential until some very intense concentration by the people at the wheel. What is needed is patience until the leaders in government have the realization that a complete review of programs is vital in order to decide what is really necessary. When they do and gather the courage to cut the unrequired, then the pressure will ease. It is not enough to skim the fat from all the pots. Some pots can go and never be missed except in the grand total of the cost of government. Thanks to Proposition 2 1/2 there is a growing realization that at some point we had already surpassed our ability to support government and no one knew it.

Proposition 2 1/2, as law, drew the line exactly as voters intended.

Scholarships Available

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club Scholarship fund-raiser Rummage Sale was a great success. As a result, 4 scholarships will be available this year. Three, of $400. each, will be offered to high school senior girls. The fourth will be offered to a Re-entry woman (one who wishes to resume her education after a period of significant interruption). This scholarship will be $450.

Application forms for college scholarships are now available in high school guidance offices. Forms for the Re-entry Scholarship may be obtained from Susan Smith (758-9314). Call after 6 p.m. on weekdays and any time weekends. All applications are due on or before May 1.

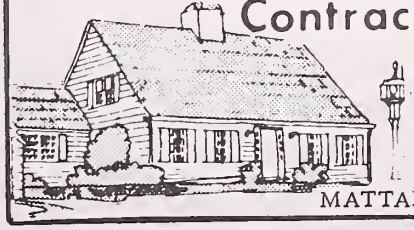

Easter Egg Hunt

King Lion Gene Pursley has announced the annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by the Mattapoisett Lions Club, will be held at Old Rochester Regional High School on Sunday, April 19th, at 2:00 p.m.

This annual event, under the direction of Clayton King, is open to any Mattapoisett youngster 13 years of age and younger. There is no fee required to participate and prizes are awarded to those finding marked eggs or total number of eggs.

If you've never been a part of this fun-filled Hunt, we'd recommend you arrange to be there for the start as these youngsters tend not to waste any time in doing

River Rebound

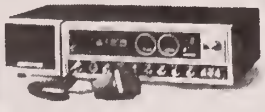

With a splash and a silver streak more than 1200 trout hit the waters of the Mattapoisett River at the old Rounseville Sawmill site on Route 105 in Rochester and at the end of Tinkham Lane in Mattapoisett last Tuesday, April 7th. It is part of a continuing program of the Fin, Fur & Feather Club members to bring back the river as a first class recreation spot. Club members were chagrined last year when their trout fishing derby yielded one small trout caught by one of the 20 fishermen who entered the derby. The club decided to do something constructive toward returning the river to its potential.

"We then decided something had to be done about the trout since it was becoming too expensive to fish trout waters of the Cape where heavy stocking of trout is done. We contacted then Representative Biff MacLean and asked how he could help area sportsmen. He arranged a meeting with us and the Director of Fisheries and Wildlife Richard Cronin. The Director and his Biologist did an on-site survey

They also thought the river could have sea-run brown trout and a shad fishery. They also noticed alewife fingerlings that were trapped by debris in the river.

"That's when we realized how important the alewife was to our project. They were a food source for the trout, and it also was a chance to perpetuate a phenomenon that has gone on for hundreds of years. We read up on the alewife and its habits and found out as much as we could about them.

"Last summer and fall when the river was at its lowest point, cleanup was begun. We took from the river cans, bottles, auto parts, tires, gum ball machines, 55 gallon drums, TV's, 5-6 truckloads of trash in all. And in doing so improved the flow of the river and freed thousands of alewife fingerlings so they could make their journey back to the ocean. There are however other places that need immediate attention.

The home improvement loan for the little guy with big ideas.

Today, the biggest ideas in home improvement are the ones that cut energy bills down to size. And save big, big money.

At Fairhaven Savings, we've got plenty of money to help you make your big ideas work. And we're lending that money at very competitive rates.

We don't just lend you money. We lend you a home improvement consultant, too.

If you think your home is a candidate for some energy-saving improvements, just give us a call at Fairhaven Savings or the Dartmouth Banking Center. We'll send out a home improvement consultant at no obligation. He'll take a quick tour of your home and let you know all the ways you can save money. All the leaky windows that need fixing. Walls and ceilings that need more insulation. The doors that could use weatherstripping. And so on. He'll not only tell you where you can save money, but how much you can save, too.

The cost of heat is going up and up. Waiting just costs you money.

The cost of heat and electricity went up 30% this year. It may go up even more next year. So every little leak in a window, every little crack in a door costs you more money every day.

So why not talk to our home improvement consultant.

He'll show you how a little money today can save you a lot of money tomorrow. And the next day. And the next day.

mission, Mattapoisett Selectmen and the Tri-Town Herring Commission. We learned some very interesting things that will help to further our program. Due to one of these meetings, the Herring Commission agreed to use some of their funds to clear obstacles in the river for the herring at Route 6, Tinkham Lane and Route 105 this coming summer.

"We also met with representatives of the Boy Scouts who are very interested in helping clean up rubbish along the river and to keep it clean so scouts can earn merit badges.

"Fisheries & Wildlife took a survey of the river this past summer and found it to be excellent for trout. An interesting note is that of 15 rivers in the area that were to be surveyed by Fish & Wildlife this past year, only the Mattapoisett River had any water flow and was decent enough to be surveyed. The other 14 rivers, because of the drought, had dried up.

"Because of our communications with Fish & Wildlife, they have assured us that more trout will be stocked in the river from now on for the benefit of area sportsmen."

the largest trout of the day.

Only those trout caught in the Mattapoisett River or Mary's Pond may be entered, but you must register at the clubhouse first. Any trout to be entered must be in the clubhouse by 12:00 noon sharp and there will be only one prize per person in each class. Trout must be caught with rod and reel and in accordance with the Fish and Game Laws of Massachusetts. There is a charge to enter each class and also a charge for the breakfast.

You may also take this opportunity to enter the 1981 Fishing Derby. This is open to the public; is open for Trout and Largemouth Bass, and Bluefish and Striped Bass. It runs until the end of the year at which time the largest entry in each of the four categories wins a trophy.

(Automotive Mechanics) and Richard Dufresne (Welding) took home first place awards in the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America's state-wide "Skill Olympics". They were among 580 students from across Massachusetts who took part in the event at the Minuteman Technical High School in Lexington on April 3 and 4.

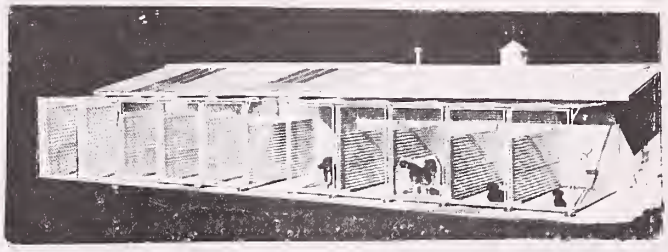

By virtue of their winning efforts Babineau and Dufresne have qualified for the National competition in Atlanta, Georgia, which is scheduled for June 16-21. Babineau and his Automotive instructor, Don Mosher, are being sponsored by General Motors. Dufresne and his Welding instructor, Bob Bettencourt, are currently looking for a sponsor.

But Old Colony's success at the State competition was not limited to Automotive Mechanics and Welding. Second place finishers were Richard Newell in Drafting, Edward Fernandes in Data Processing, and Stephen Cassidy in Carpentry. Betsy Lowell took third place in Data Processing and Karen Plante took a third in Cosmetology. Other Old Colony finalists were Natalie Mareiro, Peter Mandeville, Lisa Johnson, Paul Branco, Jacquelyn Rousseau, and Monique Beaulieu.

Old Colony, which is comparatively small for a Regional Vocational High School, received a good deal of praise for its involvement in VICA. By the same token, the Old Colony students should be commended for the professionalism they displayed throughout the competition.

Eye Saver Day

The Marion Lions will observe EYE SAVER DAY by selling a six-pack of light bulbs. Members will be delivering the bulbs this Saturday, April 18th. Proceeds will aid Massachusetts Eye Research. Last year the Marion Lions contributed $1,109.20. Your contribution is tax deductible.

Marion Dredging

PERMIT SOUGHT

The Massachusetts Department of Environmental Quality Engineering is seeking permission from the New England Division, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, to dredge in Sippican Harbor at Marion. A total of about 18,000 cubic yards of silty clay and gravel would be removed from two areas in the harbor and deposited on a land site.

The application was filed with the Engineers in compliance with Section 10 of the River and Harbor Act of 1899 which provides for federal regulation of placing obstructions to navigation and in dredging from waters of the U. S. and Section 404 of the Clean Water Act of 1977 which regulates the discharge of dredged or fill material into U.S.

School Readiness

Parents of children entering kindergarten often wonder if their child is really ready for school. Most parents realize that all children are not ready to walk or talk at the same age. And yet it seems that public schools use only a child's birthdate as the sole criterion for school entrance. Is this a reliable measure for your child's school readiness? School success is so important in our society. As parents, we all want to do our best to insure our child's success. A panel of professionals in the area of early childhood development will be offering their views on the subject of school readiness and what part parents can play at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School on Tuesday, April 28th, at 7:30 p.m. in the cafetorium. This panel will include early elementary teachers from Acushnet, Mattapoisett, and Rochester, child care instructors from Old Colony, John Bastoni, Principal, Acushnet Elementary School; and Samuel Rogers, M.D., Pediatrician.

Anyone interested in the topic is most welcome to come.

CEMETERY CORP. MEETING

The annual meeting of the Cushing Cemetery Corporation will be held on Monday, April 26th, at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Albert Heuberger on Acushnet Road, Mattapoisett.

Old Colony Cheerleaders

We've come a long way baby. The Old Colony Cheerleaders have made history. They have entered six competitions and have received five trophies for their accomplishments. Their first competition was at Agawam where they took first place in the small school division. This is very unusual, as this was the first year they have ever gone into competition. Their second competition was held at Chicopee and they placed fourth against teams six times their size. Their third competition was held at David Prouty which was the most important one of all. They placed first out of thirteen squads.

This competition is considered the State's Competition which makes the Old Colony Cheerleaders State Champions for their division. Their fourth competition was held at Franklin, where they were placed fourth out of ten squads. The fifth competition was held at North Attleboro. They placed fifth out of sixteen squads. There was only a six point difference between fourth and fifth place. Last but not least, their sixth competition was held at New Bedford Voke, where they placed first out of four squads.

SATURDAY PROGRAM - APRIL 18th

The Children's Museum's annual Easter Egg Hunt is Saturday, April 18th, at 2:00 p.m. See if the Easter Bunny has left any treasures hidden in the woods or on the trails of the Museum property. He usually does! Children ages 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 are welcome to participate. A small fee is asked per child and each child should bring a container. No registration is necessary. In case of rain it will be cancelled.

FIELD WALK - APRIL 18th

A very unusual bird and a native of New England is the American Woodcock. The shy and seldom seen Woodcock becomes a focus of attention each April as it performs its unusual Spring mating dance. The patient observer is usually well rewarded if he can manage to sit silently in a field or meadow around twilight on an April evening. The Children's Museum will hold its Woodcock Walk on Saturday, April 18th, at 5:45 p.m. Anyone wishing to join this adventure should dress warmly and cover their flashlight with red cellophane. There are many other wonders to discover on a Spring night hike, and if we

O. H.'s "Cinderella"

WELL DONE!

An enthusiastic cast and an appreciative audience thoroughly enjoyed themselves at the Old Hammondtown School auditorium this past Saturday evening as the musical, "Cinderella", opened. The play was prefaced with remarks by school principal William H. Reed. He praised the cast and crew for their many hours of labor in bringing the tale to the stage, noting that parents and staff members had served mainly as advisors to the student workers. Mr. Reed thanked the P.T.C. for its sponsorship of the event, adding that admission donations would be used to repay the organization. The audience was invited to view the display of "Cinderella" memorabilia in the lobby showcase at the conclusion of the play.

A procession of 23 chorus members signaled the opening of the curtain as they paraded down the side and center aisles. Old Queen Ella (Sara McLean) and King Not-So-Charming-Anymore (Sean Reed) were seated onstage, taking a nostalgic look through a scrapbook of their years together. The story was traditional, but with updated, often humorous lines entwined by pop-rock tunes and dances.

The ten to twelve year olds handled their acting roles superbly. The audience was especially appreciative of the delightful Fairy Godmother (Christine Clarkson), the mean stepmother (Leanne Bessette), and the snobbish stepsisters (Aimee Surprenant and Kerrin Talty). A favorite scene occurs at the palace ballroom, as Prince Charming (David Walega) first glimpses the beautiful Cinderella (Andrea Porter). Here the cast mingled and danced with an obviously surprised audience.

Colorful scenery, costumes, and makeup enhanced the 45-minute production. The young performers were rewarded with a stand-

The featured speaker at the April meeting of the Westport Historical Society will be Mr. Carlton C. Brownell of Little Compton, Rhode Island who will give a slide presentation entitled: "Restoring the Colonial Home". The program will be held at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 23, at Pacific Union Congregational Church, 526 Old County Road, Head of Westport. In his talk, Mr. Brownell will discuss the problems and philosophy of restoration today.

For the past 30 years Mr. Brownell has been engaged on a part time basis in restoring old houses in Tiverton and Little Compton, Rhode Island. His expertise includes everything from turning new balusters to applying the final coats of paint.

Retired from his post as teacher of history and head of the history department at Tiverton High School, Mr. Brownell continues to be actively involved in the historical societies of both Little Compton and Tiverton.

The public is cordially invited to attend this lecture program. There is a small admission charge for non-members. Refreshments will be served at the social gathering following the talk.

This program was originally scheduled in January, but was cancelled at that time due to hazardous driving conditions.

S.M.U. GALLERY CONCERT

The New England Woodwind Quintet will present a concert at Southeastern Massachusetts University on Thursday, April 16, at 12 noon in the Gallery located in the College of Visual and Performing Arts (Group VI) building. The Gallery is accessible to the handicapped. Parking is behind the building in lots 8, 9 and 10. The event is free and open to the public.

The Quintet is a group of young professionals who have performed together extensively in New England. This is their second appearance at SMU.

The program will consist of three Woodwind Quintets. The composers represented are Robert Beaser, Vincent F. Luti, and Carl Nielsen. Mr. Luti is on the SMU faculty.

An added feature for this special concert is a selected exhibition of works by eight outstanding SMU design students. Works to be exhibited are in pottery, weaving, textiles, graphics, illustration and photography. "As an attractive feast of eye and ear, this is a spring event for many tastes," says Prof. Kerry Carlin of the music department.

morning while they were gone, Iranian militants invaded the embassy. The two attempted to secure release of the Americans by camping all night at the Foreign Ministry but were unsuccessful. Finally, they too were taken captive and thus began Tomseth's 444 days of captivity in Iran.

He has a long history of service with the diplomatic corps. Before joining the embassy, he served as consul in Shiraz, Iran. Before that he was in Thailand as vice consul in Chiang Mai and in Udorn, staff assistant to the ambassador in Bangkok, and political officer in Bangkok where he met his wife, Wallapa.

Tomseth received his bachelor's degree in history from the University of Oregon and his master's in South Asian studies from the University of Michigan.

Elderly Services

CENTER FOR VISUALLY IMPAIRED

The Greater New Bedford Center for the Visually Impaired is now, at last, a reality. The project, to be a boom to blind and visually impaired elders and their families, was officially opened on April 6.

Located in an office at the New Bedford YMCA, the Center has a fulltime director, Betty A. Butts, a former employee of the Massachusetts Commission for the Blind.

The project is one of nine recently funded by Coastline Elderly Services, Inc., announced executive director, David Alves. Coastline is the designated area agency for services for the elderly.

After the 6-month, $21,000 grant was approved by the Advisory Board of Coastline, Mr. Alves expressed his feeling the funding of such a project such as the Greater New Bedford Center for the Visually Impaired is especially appropriate, in view of the growing number of elderly resident who suffer from vision loss.

The services to be provided by the center (V.I.C.) will be in the nature of information and referral, telephone counseling, technical assistance, and, once enough volunteers have been recruited and suitably trained, more sophisticated services as crisis intervention and family counseling. Optical aids and devices to aid in performance of everyday tasks will be kept on hand for "hands-on" inspection.

When other sources of funding are available and secured, the program will be expanded to provide similar services to other segments of the population.

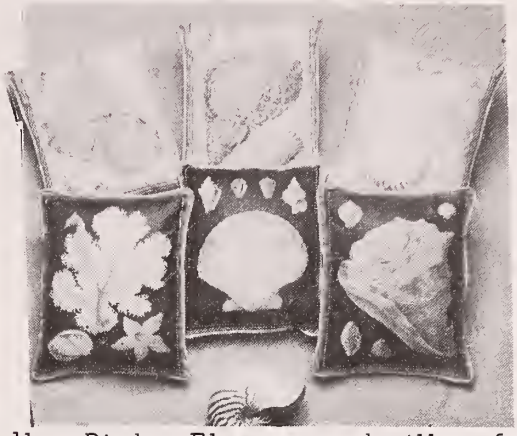

The organization's president, Dr. Morris Rubin, says that Program Supervisor Betty Butts will be on duty 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and invites anyone to call the Center or to stop by the office at the YMCA. The number to call is 997-3133.

Open Wednesday & Saturday 9 to 5 the bridge will be open for two-way traffic continuously beginning Friday (April 17) at 5:00 p.m. until 7:30 a.m. Tuesday (April 21), when a new daily schedule becomes effective.

Travelers can obtain current information by calling the Engineers' toll-free Hotline at 1-800-342-8771.

The 45-year old span has been undergoing major rehabilitation and traffic has been restricted to one lane on an alternating basis since last fall.

The head of the Corps' New England office, Colonel C. Ernest Edgar, III, praised the cooperation of local officials and the contractor that permitted the opening of a second lane to traffic during the holiday period.

"Our holiday schedule is intended to accommodate an increased volume of traffic, but is dependent on favorable weather conditions that will enable the work to be completed on time," said Colonel Edgar.

The new weekday schedule starts Tuesday (April 21):

7:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. - northbound (off Cape).

11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. - southbound

(on Cape);

2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. - northbound

5:00 p.m. to 7:30 a.m. - two way traffic, with one lane open in each direction.

The revised weekend schedule will provide for two way traffic from 5:00 p.m. each Friday continuously until 7:30 a.m. each Monday morning.

A Corps' spokesman noted that travelers may encounter delays since the bridge is not operating at full capacity and that restrictions may be imposed by local officials during emergencies and periods of heavy traffic. Motorists are advised to consider using the Sagamore Bridge as an alternate route to and from the Cape.
